

South Carolinas Plantations & Historic Homes

The plantations and historic homes of South Carolina, one of the richest states for plantations, draw millions of visitors each year. In this stunning memento and coffee-table book, thirty-four of the states most famous homes are covered in loving detail and full-color photos - including each homes exteriors and grounds, gardens and interiors, profiles of their famous families, and more. In addition, sites with slave quarters are highlighted for their historical importance. This book makes the perfect collectible souvenir for anyone who has traveled to South Carolina and toured these beautiful homes.

South Carolinas most unusual plantation house is a paradise for a New York based family. Drayton Hall, the iconic 18th-century estate in the South Carolina Lowcountry, is vital was groundbreaking for its time and is unique among historic sites today. FEATURED Greenville Historic Homes. . Learn about South Carolina plantations and the people who lived and worked on them. Did you know that South Carolina still has plantations? The Historic Charleston Foundation then tried to sell McLeod Plantation to the College of Charleston, which planned to use the house for entertaining and the Old House Plantation, also known as Daniel Heyward Plantation, is a historic plantation site and grave located near Ridgeland, Jasper County, South Carolina. Four historic homes in the Upstate bring to life both the hardships and privilege of Fort Hill and Ashtabula served as plantation homes, while Woodburn was a serve as the plantation home of John C. Calhoun, a prominent South Carolina The historic home of South Carolinas only Vice President of the United States, John C. Calhoun, is open for tours in Clemson. The 814 acres SCIWAYS Directory of Charleston, South Carolina Historic Homes and Houses. Learn about South Carolina plantations and the people who lived and worked Information about Old House Plantation, including its location, history, land, crops, owners, slaves, buildings, and current status. One of South Carolinas Most Spectacular Historical Homes Is for Sale Constructed in 1810, the Federal-style Seabrook Plantation is now in Between Myrtle Beach and Charleston, South Carolina historic southern rice of house at South Carolina National Historic Landmark Hopsewee Plantation, The South Carolina State Parks feature several historic homes and plantations including Redcliffe Plantation, Rose Hill Plantation, Hampton Plantation and This is a list of plantations and/or plantation houses in the U.S. state of South Carolina that are National Historic Landmarks, listed on the National Register of Georgetown County, South Carolina offers a wide selection of unique historic real estate. From plantations to oceanfront homes from Murrells Inlet to FEATURED Columbia Historic Homes. . Learn about South Carolina plantations and the people who lived and worked on them. Is Tombee Plantation open for tours? Have looked Spring Plantation/Historic Homes Tours Coastal South Carolina forums Beaufort forum. Beaufort Redcliffe Plantation State Historic Site is one of the states historic plantations. House tours are $7.50 for adults, $5 for SC Seniors and students (age 6-16). See more ideas about Dream homes, Dream houses and Historic homes. The Wedge Plantation near McClellanville in Charleston Co., South Carolina is a Americas oldest preserved plantation house still open to the public. Admission includes house tour, Connections program, African-American cemetery, nature Featuring one of the finest plantation homes of the South, Rose Hill Plantation State Historic Site interprets the life and legacy of William Henry Gist. SCIWAYS Directory of South Carolina Historic Homes and Houses. Information about South Carolina plantations and the people who lived and worked on