

Songs At the Rivers Edge: Stories From a Bangladeshi Village

Katy Gardner's account of her fifteen-month stay in the small Bangladeshi village of Talukpur has become a classic study of rural life in South Asia. Through a series of beautifully crafted narratives, the villagers and their stories are brought vividly to life and the author's role as an outsider sensitively conveyed in her descriptions of the warm friendships she makes. Above all Songs at the Rivers Edge is written from a deep respect of Bangladesh and its country.
