

With Lee in Virginia: A Story of the American Civil War

The debate over States rights has reached a boiling point, the Rebel states are planning an attempt to secede from the Union, and war is imminent! Share a fictional young Virginians experience as, Vincent Wingfield, joins the Confederate army. During this adventure, you will learn why the Confederates were blessed with great leaders and how they confronted incredible odds as they fought against the economic advantage and sheer manpower of the Union. With a backdrop of the U.S. Civil War and Lee in Virginia, this tale is a wonderful mix of adventure and history. This is a story of excellent reading for older children or adults. Included in this edition are geographical, historical, and explanatory footnotes which will help the modern reader to savor this G.A. Henty classic.
